Bad Symptoms.

The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, sees imaginary dark spots or specks floating or dancing before her eyes, has gnawing distress or heavy full feeling in stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, irregular or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weaknesses and derangements that should have early attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Neglected or badly treated and such cases often run into maladies which demand the surgeon's knife if they do not result fatally.

No medicine extant has such a long and numerous record of cures in such cases as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. No medicine has such a strong professional indorsement of each of its several ingredients—worth more than any number of ordinary non-professional testimonials. The very best ingredients known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments enter into its composition. No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath.

In any condition of the female system, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of this "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; will not cure tumors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Women suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Doctor Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (1000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address as above.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

FIENDISH CRIME

Intense excitement prevails at Marlington, W. Va., over the outrage perpetrated on Miss Ona Bird, 16 years old, daughter of a resident of Pocahontas county, who, while with a young man named Gladwell, with whom she had eloped, was taken from her husband and shamefully treated by two men said to be Albert Gay and Warrick Ratliff. The accused are now in jail at Marlington, and threats of lynching are heard on all sides.

The prisoners have been fully identified. They are nervous and excited, and are terrified when crowds of men and boys pass the jail.

Miss Bird and young Gladwell, who conducted a barber shop at Marlington, had been sweethearts for some months, although the girl's father seriously objected to the companionship. On yesterday week they decided they would elope to Virginia and get married. They stopped at Ratliff's farm, about four miles from Marlington, for the purpose of spending the night there. Ratliff was not at home. When the couple started away they saw Ratliff and Gay coming toward the house.

Ratliff and his companion were drunk and had a jug of whisky in the wagon in which they drove to the farm. Gladwell informed Ratliff he and the girl wished to spend the night in his house, and also said they wanted to be driven to Virginia to be married. As soon as Ratliff heard the plans he called Gay aside and the two whispered together for some moments.

Then Ratliff answered that he intended taking the girl away from Gladwell, and before the frightened youth and girl could run Ratliff darted into the house, got a Winchester rifle and cartridges, and leveled the weapon at Gladwell's head. He held the would-be bridegroom off while Gay took the girl into the farm house and attacked her.

The girl freed herself from his grasp and ran from the house, but Ratliff seized her and held her for a few minutes; then, releasing her, he covered both the girl and her lover with a rifle and ordered Gay to saddle two of the fastest horses in the stable. Gay obeyed immediately, and when the saddled horses were brought to the front of the house, Ratliff threw the girl on one of the animals while he jumped on the other. Gay was then ordered to get another gun and two blankets for Ratliff, who had Gladwell at bay while on the horse. When the blankets and gun were handed to him, Ratliff seized the bridle of the girl's horse and rode off at breakneck speed.

He took Miss Bird to a lonely spot on Marlington Mountain, half way between his home and Marlington. After throwing the gun and blankets to the ground he tied his horse and then made the girl his victim. Then he coolly informed her that she must die.

She begged to be allowed to pray. Ratliff said he would kill her instantly if she uttered a word of prayer.

Meanwhile Gladwell had escaped from his drunken guardian, and made his way to the home of Chief Yeager. Between grasps for breath and sobs he hurriedly told the story of horror.

Chief Yeager awakened the girl's father, and the two, armed with revolvers and Winchesters, went in search of the fiends, twenty-one minutes after they were informed of the outrage.

Chief Yeager and Justice of the Peace Bird came upon the lonely spot where the girl had been subjected to brutal indignities. Chief Yeager was within forty yards of Ratliff when the latter saw him and ran.

Chief Yeager fired, but missed, and Ratliff attempted to hide.

The chief and justice gave their attention to the girl, who was hysterical. She was finally quieted, and told her story, which caused her father to cry out for the blood of her assailant. Chief Yeager descended the hill, and was about to shoot at a clump of rustling bushes, when Ratliff sprang up and shouted: "Don't shoot me, Paris; I'll surrender!"

When the chief placed the girl's assailant on a horse and started to town with him, Judge Bird fired at Ratliff, first with a revolver and later with a rifle. Both charges went directly over Chief Yeager's shoulders, and he now marvels at his escape from death.

Miss Bird is in a precarious condition. The family physician has been in constant attendance since the outrage was committed, and says that if the little girl recovers, she will more than likely be of unsound mind for the rest of her days. Miss Bird, because of her six hours' experience with Gay and Ratliff, has been unable to talk coherently or make herself understood by her relatives. She tumbles and tosses on her bed, and writhes in unimagionable agony.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

Davis Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and body builder; sure cure for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, 50c.

Hartje Case Perjurer Sentenced.

William B. De Costa, colored, who was convicted of perjury in connection with the trial of Cliff rd Hooe, the negro coachman, formerly in the employ of Augustus Hartje, was yesterday at Pittsburg sentenced to serve two years in the Western penitentiary. Hooe is serving a sentence in the same penal institution, having been convicted on a similar charge, and with the incarceration of De Costa there closes a second chapter of the sequel to the sensational Hartje divorce proceedings.

The next will probably be the trial of the libellant, Augustus Hartje, and John L. Welshons on the charge of conspiracy, and when these cases have been disposed of there will remain only the indictments against Staab and Anderson, the two detectives, who have been granted a new trial on the charge of rifling the trunk of Thomas Madine, the coachman co-respondent.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptons only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 30, 1907.

UPON recommendation of the health office of Washington the ordinance to prevent the sale of unwholesome food is to be so amended as to procure the proper screening of food from flies and other insects and to provide for the proper cleansing of all stores, markets, dairies, and cafes. All meats, fish, breads, cakes, and similar perishable articles must be shown in glass cases or protected by screens. The regulations include also provisions for the cleansing of all apparatus and materials used, and after the washing of hands of all persons employed in the handling of food stuffs. Violation of the regulations is made punishable by a fine of not more than $25 for each offense. The regulations become effective after the expiration of thirty days immediately following the date of their promulgation. Taking into consideration the rapid growth of the germ theory those who sell food stuffs cannot be too careful in displaying and handling them. Still the enforcement of such regulations in Alexandria would be difficult of accomplishment.

THE ACTION begun by Mrs. Howard Gould, formerly Catharine Clemmons, the actress, in the Supreme Court at New York for separation, with a demand for alimony based upon an alleged income of $1,000,000 a year, has brought to light the fact that detective officials on the New York police force were employed by Gould's lawyer, De Lancey Nicoll, to try to get evidence against his wife, to be used in divorce proceedings. Mrs. Gould charges abandonment, and that "Big" Hawley, a noted crook, was employed to trump up a case of bigamy against her. It is said that Mrs. Gould refused an offer of $1,000,000 not to oppose the suit for divorce. A generation ago the scandals in the Gould family would have interested but few people, but now thousands are anxiously awaiting developments. Times change and money helps to change them.

THOUGH it is hoped to the contrary, many fear that the Confederate reunion now being held in Richmond will be the last of the grand rallies of the remnant of those who over forty years ago wore the gray. It is fitting that this reunion should be held in Richmond, the capital of the "storm-rocked nation that fell," and the occasion gave an opportunity to many old Confederates to once more, and probably for the last time, visit the city in the defense of which so many of their comrades fell. Time is rapidly decimating their ranks, and in the course of but too few years the Confederate soldier will be a thing of the past, but of glorious memory. Nothing is too good for them now, and it is the hearty wish of all Southrons that the remainder of their lives will be passed conscious of the appreciation in which they are justly held.

PASSENGERS on the steamer Minnehaw which arrived at London last night were loud today in voicing a grievance against James Carew, Ellen Terry's young new husband. Their complaint was that Carew kept out of their sight during almost the entire voyage when they desired a chance to study him. On the first day out he was stared at, pointed out and gossipped about, often in a tone which brought every word to his ear. After that the passengers saw no more of him. Just where he secreted himself no one is able to understand, but all the passengers voiced the general complaint of his exclusiveness. Carew did what any other sensible person should have done under similar circumstances when he found that he was the observed of all observers.

THE Chicago Tribune prints the allegation that the United States Steel Corporation is said to be "selling rails to the Japanese Government at its export price, which is $10 a ton less than its domestic price, and is making them in strict accordance with the Japanese specifications." Rails of inferior quality, such as have been sold and laid down on the railways of the United States, will hardly pass the Japanese inspection. It will not lessen the public indignation to know that the lives of travelers are thus needlessly endangered in this country by the use of defective rails. In commenting upon this the Philadelphia Record says: There is something rotten in a condition that enables foreigners to come into our market and buy better rails for less money.

INFORMATION has come to the Interstate Commerce Commission to the effect that, through the giving of commissions or bonuses as compensation to those soliciting or routing freight and passenger traffic, railroads in certain sections of the country have been resorting to a form of rebate. In order to put a stop to abuses thereof, and to ascertain whether the payment of commissions is necessary to these practices, and to learn to what extent these have become prevalent, the commission will call the representatives of many of the railroads before it at an early date. Yesterday it sent sent out letters to nearly every railroad in the country, asking questions on the subject.

TODAY, Decoration Day, is being quite generally observed throughout the larger portion of the country as a holiday. The day was orginally set apart by act of Congress as a holiday in order that time might be taken from business and other pursuits to strew with flowers the graves of the federal soldiers who served in the civil war. The day, however, has degenerated into one of pleasure, and those who attend the exercises at the various cemeteries are few in comparision with those who attend ball games, horse races and other sports.

THE Missouri Supreme Court yesterday held that buying wheat for future delivery was not unlawful, also that a member of the Merchants' Exchange of St. Louis is bound to fulfill all his contracts, according to the rules of the exchange.

THE great lumber trust will have in Mr. Stephenson, of Wisconsin, another vote in the United States Senate for the maintenance of duties that make it next to impossible for a man of moderate means to build or repair his dwelling.

AND it has come to pass that in Alexandria Decoration Day is more generally observed than is Confederate Memorial Day. Another instance of how times change.

From Washington.

[Correspondende of the Alexandria Gazette.]
Washington, May 30.

Silvered hair veterans marched along the same line of parade in this city today that they and their comrades took when Lincoln reviewed them at the close of the war, but today it was on the way to the cemeteries to decorate the graves of the fallen. At Arlington cemetery, where 20,000 soldiers sleep, comrade James Tanner, formerly commander-in-chief of the G. A. R. made the address of the day. The Society of the Army of the Tennessee added to the long list of shafts it has erected to its leaders by unveiling a monument to the memory of Major General Joseph Anthony Mower, U. S. A. The grave of this warrior is just to the right of the Lee mansion. Senator Warner, of Missouri, had charge of the ceremonies, while addresses were delivered by Major General Grenville, M. Dodge, one of the few major generals of the civil war surviving; Col. George C. Ross; Col. B. P. Entrekin; Col. William Hemstreet, and Col. Lucius D. Alden. The United States Marine band and the Thirteenth Cavalry band were both present.

The Society of the Army of West Virginia at noon unveiled a monument in the same cemetery to the memory of Major General Benjamin Kelly. Gen. Van H. Bukey presided, while short addresses were delivered by Capt. Thomas H. McKeen, a member of General Kelly's old regiment, the First West Virginia volunteer infantry. The anchor of the Maine came in for a remembrance. Members of Admiral Schley's naval command, Spanish war veterans, placed a wreath of flowers upon the relic, which stands as a monument in Arlington cemetery to those who lost their lives when that vessel was blown up in Havana harbor. Early in the day a flower laden boat was put out in the Potomac to be towed down to Hampton Roads, there to be set adrift as a tribute to those who lost their lives at sea. Among the flowers that deck the little craft was a beautiful cluster contributed by President Roosevelt.

Fresh flowers were found today on the graves of Capt. Allen Capron, First U. S. Artillery, and his son Capt. Allen K. Capron, Post No. 11, American Veteran of Foreign Service. They were placed by the members of Captain Allen Capron's Post No 11, American Veterans of Foreign Service, who came from Philadelphia for the purpose. The veterans were accompanied to the graves by Mrs. Allen K. Capron, who was presented with a badge of the society.

All government business was suspended for the day. Flags flew at half staff on the public buildings and all the statutes of civil war heroes about town were tastefully decorated with the National colors and wreathes of flowers.

Michigan surpassed Minnesota in the production of lumber in the year 1906, according to statistics announced by the census bureau today. Up to the end of last year, Minnesota had the lead. There were produced in Michigan, 2,094,297 feet of lumber, as compared with 1,719,000, in 1905. In Minnesota, the production in 1906 reached only 1,794,000, as compared with 1,925,000, in 1905.

The Navy Department has ordered the Gunboat Helena from Shanghai to Amoy, China. She will proceed thence to Swatow, the scene of the recent revolutionary dirturbances. Her mission is to protect American interests.

Minister Again Disppears.

Rev. Charles R. Dalrymple, of Milbury, Mass., whose wife accused him of unfaithfulness, following his arrival in Chicago, to which city he went after suddenly leaving his church, left his room early yesterday, and it is feared that he may not return. His disappearence followed a display of intense agitation, thought to have been caused by publication of an interview with his wife, in which she named a young woman who had been employed as a domestic in the Dalrymple home, but who afterward had been educated until she became, as the pastor said, "the belle of Milbury."

When he was told of the charges brought by his wife, he burst into tears and declared that he was being prosecuted and that attempt was being made to get possession of his wife's property. He declared that his relations with the young woman were not improper. She came to his home, he said, when she was only 16 years old. She worked as a housemaid for a time. As she grew older, she developed into a beautiful young woman. Her beauty was noticed, and she was educated in deportment and music. "If it is true that the young woman is coming to Chicago in search of me," said Mr. Dalrymple: "she must be insane, and I will be forced to consider her of unsound mind."

News of the Day.

A Government bulletin estimates that rats destroy $100,000,000 worth of cereals each year.

It was stated at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, this morning that United States Senator Eugene Hale, of Maine, who underwent an operation yesterday, spent rather an uncomfortable night last night, but was in a much improved condition today.

A dispatch from Caracas says that President Castro is preparing for a visit to the United States to confer with President Roosevelt about affairs effecting the two nations. From Washington he will go to Europe to complete his course at some health resort.

The memory of Patrick Henry was honored at the Jamestown Exposition today. The day will be officially known as Patrick Henry Day. The principal address was delivered by William J. Bryan, whose subject will be "Taxation Without Representation Is Tyranny."

By the explosion of several hundred pounds of powder at the storage house of the Farnsworth mine, near Sullivan, Ind., yesterday afternoon, two boys were blown to pieces and three others were seriously hurt. The cause of the explosion is not known. It is supposed that the boys accidentally set the building on fire.

The United States scout cruiser Birmingham designed to be the fastest ship in the navy, was launched yesterday at the works of the Fore River Shipbuilding Company at Quincy, Mass. The vessel went into the water without any mishap. This ship, of a type new to the United States navy, was given her name by Miss Mary Campbell, of Birmingham, Ala.

A yellow fever quarantine has been laid in the southern States against Havana. While but a few cases of yellow fever have developed in Cuba, and these removed from Havana, it is pointed out that persons may easily come from the infected districts to Havana and take passage on vessels for the United States in order to escape the ravages of the disease, or, for other purposes.

In his Memorial Day address at Steubenville, O., this afternoon, Senator Foraker took occasion to defend those who differ with President Roosevelt as to the proper methods of regulating trusts and railroads. The senator insisted that great care should be taken to enact no legislation that would confuse or intermingle the powers of the three separate departments of the government, the legislative, the executive, and the judicial.

"What is succotash?" is the question over which the board of food and drug inspection of the Agricultural Department has been wrestling. So far it has only been able to decide what it is not. An official statement was promulgated yesterday to the effect that succotash is not soaked berns or soaked corn mixed together, and manufacturers are told to govern themselves accordingly if they desire to comply with the pure food laws.

Nine-year-old John DeLucci was instantly killed in Boundbrook, N. J., yesterday, by grasping the loose end of a telephone wire which dangled from a pole of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company. The wire had fallen across an electric light wire and became charged. The boy, ignorant of his danger, caught hold of the wire, which coiled around his body. He fell to the sidewalk, and was dead before his playmates could summon aid.

Governor Guild and Governor Hughes spoke this afternoon at the unveiling of the New York and Massachusetts tablets in the Hall of Fame at New York University. The tablets unveiled are in honor of Emma Willard, Mary Mutchell, John Paul Jones, Alexander Hamilton, Louis Agassiz, Wiliam Tecumseh Sherman, James Madison, John Quincy Adams, John Whittier, and James Russell Lowell. A bust of Horace Mann was unveiled under the auspicies of the National Association.

Japanese Consul Matsurkbara at San Francisco yesterday talked for the first time about the attack on the Japanese restaurants in that city, and gave out a statement. He declares the attack was an exhibition of race prejudice and he intimates that the Japanese government has made a strong representation on the subject of these attacks, at his request and advice, through diplomatic channels at Washington. It is considered almost certain that the Japanese government will ask for an indemnity to repay the losses of the local Japanese for the alleged wrongs they have suffered as a result of the violence.

Braxton Will Defend State.

Allen Caperton Braxton, who has been representing commercial bodies of the State in the matter of a two-cent rate against the Southern road (which was, before the corporation commission, decided in favor of the State, and by the Southern and other roads taken to the federal courts), will still further prosecute the case.

Attorney-General Anderson, the governor and the members of the corporation commission conferred yesterday, and while there is no fund for compensating Mr. Braxton, the recommendation of the governor to the general assembly will meet with favorable consideration, and the fee will be paid.

Mr. Braxton will be associated with the attorney-general and may possibly "lead" in the case brought by the Southern. Major Anderson and his force have been at work on the case, and they will be ready when the court convenes. Able lawyers will appear for the railroads, and they will be there in large numbers.

The case will come up at the June term of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals at Asheville, N. C., June 27 being the date. While the Southern was the road which took the initiative in the matter, all the other roads, save the Seaboard Air Line, have joined in. —[Richmond News Leader.

Today's Telegraphic News

Unveiling of Monument.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 30.—Memorial Day, which is also celebrated here as Roosevelt day, dawned cloudy with prospects of showers before evening. The weather man, said, however, that the showers may be deferred until tonight.

President Roosevelt's train arrived here at 11:50 this morning, and at that hour a large reception committee met the train and the President and Vice President were escorted to the Fairbanks home on north Meridian street. Extra precautions were taken to guard against any annoyance for the President.

In the afternoon the parade, in which thousands participated, including troops from Forts Wayne and Thomas, marched to Court place where the monument to Gen. Lawton and was unveiled at 3:30

The main feature of the programme of exercises was President Roosevelt's speech.

President Roosevelt referred to the debt the nation owed to the veterans of the civil war—those who fought to preserve the union—and said that a reunited country now honors the memory of the wearers of the blue and gray alike. The President's eulogium on General Lawton had been carefully prepared, and he traced his history and the services he had rendered in an interesting manner, and incidentally referred to many of his cotemporaries, some of whom had worn the blue and others the gray. The President subsequently reviewed the issues which now confront the country, and reviewed present conditions, referring to legislation intended to correct many of the evils from which the country is now suffering. Among other things he said. "If we wish to show ourselves worthy heirs of the men of the civil war, we must do our tasks with the thoroughness with which they did theirs. Great social and industrial problems confront us, and their solution demands on our part unfaltering courage. * * * One great problem that we have before us is to preserve the rights of property; and these can only be preserved if we remember that they are in less jeopardy from the socialist and the anarchist than from the predatory man of wealth. It has become evident that to refuse to invoke the power of the nation to restrain the wrongs committed by the man of great wealth who does evil is not only to neglect the interests of the public, but is to neglect the interests of the man of means who acts honorably by his fellows. The power of the nation must be exerted to stop crimes of cunning no less than crimes of violence."

Fight With Miners.

Santigo De Cuba, May 30.—A serious fight occured today between rural guards and striking miners in which three men on each side were killed. Many were wounded on both sides. The battle was a result of an attempt by miners to release several companions who were arrested during the labor troubles, but the effort failed. Excepting the miners and tramway employes nearly all the strikers have returned to work until the temporary agreement made by the arbitration.

Havana, May 30.—A truce has been arranged in Santiago's labor war out of which it is probable an ultimate settlement of the dispute will grow. The armistice was arranged by the arbitration commission named to end the strike. A nine-hour day without a deduction in pay has been offered the strikers and it is believed all will accept this concession. Under the temporary agreement the dock workers and stevedoors returned to work today. Tramway laborers are holding out for the eight hours day, but it is believed they will return to work tomorrow. If a permanent settlement cannot be effected during the truce even more serious trouble than has already happened is bound to occur with the renewal of the strike.

The McNeill Monument.

Boston, Mass., May 30.—Labor leaders of national reputation attended the dedication of the monument to George E. McNeil, which occurred today in Forest Hill cemetery. President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, delivered the address. George E. McNeil was born in Ambasbury, and in early life became a well-known writer in labor's interest. In 1873 he was appointed in the State Bureau of Statistics, for years was president of the eight hour league, was president of the International Labor Union of America and one of the organizers of the American Federation of Labor, State Secretary of the Sovereigns of Industry and represented the Knights of Labor at Washington. In 1886 he was nominated for mayor of Boston by the united labor party. "McNeill," said Gompers, "was one of the greatest men produced by New England, and I am proud to be here to do some honor to his memory.

Secretary Taft in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., May 30.—Secretary of War Taft was suffering from bronchitis when he arose this morning at the home of Charles Nagel, and he had recourse to the services of a throat specialist before starting on a busy day.

After a reception at the Nagel home the Secretary was given an automobile ride and taken to the Country Club. He was then brought back to the Odeon where he addressed a large crowd of the Millers' National Federation delegates at 3p. m. His subject was "Some recent instance of our national altruism."

At 4:30 he was the center of another reception at the Glen Echo Country Club, and he is due at the University Club for another handshaking turn at 5 p. m. Tonight the Secretary will be the guest of honor at the Millers' banquet and he will depart for Washington Friday morning.

Tillman on Harriman.

Denver, Col., May 30.—Senator Tillman says that he is not the first man to say that Harriman ought to be in hell, but he said it out loud. He added that it was unfortunate that the President is always falling out with his bosom friends and calling them liars.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Attempt to Lynch a Prisoner.

New York, May 20.—A mob of 20,000 people which besieged the Flushing Police Court today at the hearing of Leon Graham, the youth who yesterday attacked little five-year-old Mamie Luck at Corona. An attempt to lynch Graham was made today. Officers guarding the prisoner were forced to draw their revolvers and keep back the crowds with threats of shooting.

The great crowd had gathered to witness the G. A. R. procession, but when the patrol wagon with Graham appeared he became the center of attraction. The crowd followed the wagon shouting "lynch him" and gathered about the door of the police station. Before Graham could be taken from the wagon it was necessary to drive the crowd by the display of arms. Then a squad of officers rushed the prisoner into the court room.

Graham was half dead with fright, and in a weak voice pleaded guilty to the charge of assault in the first degree on which he may be sent to prison for 20 years.

While Graham was relating how he attacked the little girl and attempted to drag her into a clump of bushes, John Luck, father of the girl, who arrived just in time to rescue her, tried to attack Graham. He was held back by officers.

The police waited until the crowd had disappeared before daring to bring Graham out of the court room, and he was then hurried to the Queens county jail for safe keeping.

Automobile Race.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 30.—With perfect weather conditions and over a course made as smooth as a billiard table and safeguarded at turns, ninety-three automobiles ranging from giant six cylinder machines down to the Midget two cylinder motor cars, are competting in the second hill climb of giant despair today. Thirty thousand people are gathered on the hill side to witness the contest. The racers were started by F. J. Wagher, starter of the Vanderbilt cup race. The summaries are as follows:

Motor cycle, free for all, Simplex Peugeot, 6 horse power, driver Will Ray. Time 1:40. Indian twin cylinder 5 horse power, driven by Oscar Hedstrom. Time 2:01. Indian motor cycle four-horse power driven by Jos. McLaughlin. Time 2:18

Stock cars costing $1,000 and under, D. Maxwell, 14 power, H. M. Grant, driver. Time 2:07.

Quaker City run-about class—20 horse power Stanley runabout Walter Harper driver. Time 1:56 4-5.

Fourth event for cars costing $2,500 and under, 24 horse power Corbin, Guy Hutchinson driver. Time 2:31 3-5.

Irvington, N. J., May 30.—E. Heer, of the Newark National Turnverein, won the road race, W. Morton Harrison, second.

Crisis Passed.

Marlinton, W. Va., May 30.—A promise of death for life is the bargain by which indignant citizens of this region were induced to protect Warwick Ratliff and Albert Gay, assailants of little Miss Ona Bird, from the mad fury of the mob.

The guards are old residents, who wish to save the little town from the disgrace and notoriety a lynching would bring, but they informed Chief of Police Yeager that they would leave the prisoners to their fate unless they were assured that the maximum penalty for the crime be imposed.

That the issue is in the hands of the court apparently made no difference to them, for the promise was made, and under it they have protected the prisoners from Judge Lynch.

The crisis has passed, and there is no probability of a double lynching. With Ratliff and Gay lodged in jail, the citizens will refrain from further demonstration.

Chinese Rebels Defeated.

Hong Kong, May 30.—Provincial troops today defeated a detachment of the rebellious Triads after a bitter fight. One hundreds of the rebels were killed and the leader of the band was captured. The flags and a great store of ammuuition of the Triads were also captured. A force of 2,000 provincials is now proceeding to Chao Chow.

Canton, China, May 30.—Reinforcements have been sent from here to Swatow to protect the city in case it is attacked by the rebellious Triads who have started the present uprising. The Chinese gunboat Sum-Hong is carrying the troops, comprising the Fifteenth infantry.

Fears for Balloonists.

London, May 30.—Fears are entertained that Lieutenants Caulfield and Leake, of the Royal Engineers, who made a balloon ascension on May 28, at Aldershot, have perished at sea. Their balloon has been picked up at sea, and the only chance for the officers, it is believed, is that they were rescued by some vessel. The ascension occurred at the review in honor of Prince Fushimi of Japan. The last seen of the balloon was Tuesday evening when it was sighted by coast guards near Exmouth, being blown out to sea. A fishing smack picked up the big gas bag in the English channel.

Memorial Day in Havana.

Havana, May 30.— Memorial Day was fittingly observed by Americans in Havana today. As a part of the ceremonies the wreck of the battleship Maine, which was blown up in Havana harbor, was decorated. Flowers and wreaths were also placed on the graves of all American soldiers who were killed in the war with Spain.

Employers Upheld.

Capt. James F. Oyster, acting as chairman and umpire of the joint conference committee of fifteen representatives of the newly organized Employers' Association of the building trades, of Washington, and fifteen representatives of the building trades mechanics, after three meetings to discuss the matter, one of them lasting until 2 o'clock in the morning, threw his vote to the employers' side, thus defeating the contentions of the men for recognition of a closed shop in Washington.

It is believed that all the men out on strike on the new Metropolitan Club building, at Seventeenth and H streets northwest, and on the row of houses on Park road, near Seventh street, may return to work in a few days and the matter be arbitrated.

The fight has been a long and bitter one, and the trades have refused to arbitrate the matter, claiming that the master plumbers had not lived up to the award handed down by the board arbitrating the differences between them resulting from the lockout of all the men last August.

CONFEDERATE REUNION.

The Confederate Reunion commenced in Richmond today, when the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans met in annual session. Fully 30,000 members are in this city. Although the reunion officially did not open until this morning, when the veterans gathered in convention at the Auditorium building, the first real function was held last night, when a brilliant reception was given by the Richmond chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy in Lee Camp Hall. Mrs. Norman V. Randolph, president of the Richmond chapter, assisted by its other officers, received, and in the line were a number of distinguished Confederate women, who gave greeting to the veterans who attended. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Every train and every boat into Richmond yesterday brought hundreds of visitors, and last night at Camp Gordon, far out in the western suburbs, nearly 3,000 veterans were housed. This camp, designed to accomodate the veterans unable to go to the hotels, covers nearly 20 acres of ground. Within it are 700 tents, and the preparations for feeding the thousands who will live there during the reunion are keeping those in charge hustling.

At 9:30 o'clock this morning the convention of Confederate Veterans, was called to order by Maj. Gen. Stith Bolling. The exercises was brief but impressive. The address of welcome was made by Governor Swanson and Mayor McCarthy. But the main feature came in the afternoon, when a great parade was formed, in which rode Mrs. Stuart, widow of Gen. J. E. B. Stuart, and many other distinguished women and men. This parade marched through the city to the Stuart statue which was unveiled by Miss Virginia Stuart Waller, 8 years old, the youngest granddaughter of General Stuart.

The parade is looked upon as an event with a triple significance. Not only does it mark the unveiling of a monument to one of the greatest of the Confederacy's leaders, but it likewise is the first big feature of the last great reunion of Confederate veterans. In addition to this the parade will, when it marches onward, after the statue is unveiled, to Hollywood Cemetery, bring back to mind the 60,000 Confederate soldiers who lie there buried.

The concluding exercises of the day will place in the Auditorium at night, when the officers, sponsors and maids of honor from the various States will be formally presented to the veterans and sons of veterans.

Ex-Gov. Montague is to deliver a formal address of welcome tonight at the convention of the Sons of Veterans. Considerable comment is created here by the profusion of United States flags that form a feature of the decorations. In some cases the Stars and Stripes are much more conspicuous than the Stars and Bars. Some of the veterans seem to think that this is the one time in the year when they are privileged to see their old battle flag more conspicuously than any other.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch says: Among those who attracted the greatest attention were General Stephen D. Lee, General Eppa Hunton, Captain Robert E. Lee, son of General Robert E Lee; Colonel Robert E Lee, grandson of General R. E. Lee, and son of General W. H. F. Lee, and Senator Daniel. There were also present Miss Mary Custis Lee, daughter of General R. E. Lee; Mrs. W. H. F. Lee, Miss Mary Harrison, of Mississippi, and Mrs. John Lee, of Alabama. Governor and Mrs. Swanson held an informal reception at the Jefferson last night, when the sponsors and maids of honor were introduced.

Mysterious Double Murder.

Springfield, Ill., May 30.—With a bullethole through the right temple of each the bodies of Cora Leaderbrand, aged seventeen years, and her sister Carrie, aged seven years, were recovered from the waters of Sugar creek, a small stream eight miles south of this city. It was at first thought that the elder girl had been drowned while trying to rescue her sister who was cripple. Examination soon disclosed the fact, however, that both the girls had been shot through the head.

The American Magazine for June has been received from the Phillips Publishing Co., New York, and is excellent in its make up. An article on Harriman concerns itself with the man, a man whom no one envies. "Following the Color line" this month deals with the negro in southern city life. The instalment of "Tariff in our Times" is entitled, "In the hands of the Democrats." A sketch of Antonio Corsi, illustrated with photographs, is of much interest. David Grayson contributes another "Adventure in Contentment" and "In the Interpreter's House" deals with the questions of the day. Among the very good stories is one by George Madden Martin.

The Success Magazine for June has been received from its publishers in New York. Its leading article tells of the speculative craze which followed the discoveries in wireless telegraphy. Baseball, its origin, history, etc, is discussed touching on features of the sport not generally known. "Christian Science, not a theory but a fact" is an exposition of its practicality as a religious faith. "The Wheat lands of West Canada" tells of the splendid farming opportunities west of Winnipeg. Features of timely value are "The Sanitary Home," "Gifts for the Girl Graduate," "Wedding Preparations" and "The Well-dressed Man." The fiction of this issue is good.

The New York Stock Market.

New York, May 30.—The stock market closed at about the highest figure of the day, showing net gains of from 1 to 2 per cent.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with erhumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Palm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by W. F. Creighton and Gibson and Timberman.

THE RIGHT MAN FOR CONGRESS

Editor Fairfax Herald:—I have watched with some interest the development of the contest now in progress for the Congressional nomination, and have given considerable thought to the views advanced by the various candidates. Owing to our close geographical and business connection with the city of Washington the people residing north of the Rapidan river are very deeply interested in the selection of a suitable person to represent us in the Congress of the United States.

Judge Nicol has proclaimed his platform of principles. He has certain views on the Philippine question which, whether right or wrong, would effect no change in the present status of that matter. He also favors aid from the United States government in behalf of our public roads, but couples it with the condition that the Federal government shall exercise no supervision in the expenditure of any appropriation it might make for that purpose. This virtually means no aid from that source, for countless generations will pass from the face of the earth, Mr. Editor, before the Federal government will render any help under such conditions. We do not require that the appropriations for our rivers and harbors shall be expended under our State or county direction, then why throw this obstacle in the way of road improvements? For my part, I deem this a matter of vital importance, and shall be glad to see our highways improved, no matter from what source.

I am a good deal like the old lady who had an abiding faith in the goodness of the Lord, to whom she properly ascribed "every good and perfect gift." Some wags happened to pass her house one day and heard her praying for bread, her supply having become exhausted. They hastened to the bakery and bought a few loaves which they dropped down her chimney while she was praying. A little later they met the old lady who told them how graciously the Lord had answered her prayer. The young rascals thought this was their chance to shatter her faith, and said: "Mrs. Hope, the Lord didn't send you that bread; we dropped it down your chimney." "Oh, yes, the Lord sent it," said the old lady, "even if the devil did bring it." And so I say, may the Lord send us good roads, even though they come through the liberality of the general government (our government) whose participation in this work the judge would exclude.

I am not acquainted with Mr. Ryan's position on any of these questions, but I do know that Mr. Gordon (good man that he is) lives so remote from the section so deeply interested in this matter that he cannot fully realize our needs in regard to federal or District of Columbia legislation. He comes from a county in exclusive business touch with Richmond and therefore knows nothing of the situation in the northern tier of counties in regard to these important matters.

We want a man in Congress who will see to it that our dairy cattle are not condemned upon the suggestion of incompetent experts; who will see to it that we have proper access to the Washington markets to which the major portion of our products must go, and who is in full sympathy and touch with our people. That man is C. C. Carlin, of Alexandria. Commencing as a poor boy, the son of an old Confederate soldier, he has won his present prominent position at the bar and in political affairs by his indomitable perservance, coupled with a brilliant mind and a generous heart. Are we to suppose that these fine qualities will forsake him when he becomes our representative? On the contrary, we may expect renewed energy and achievements on his part, and while I have no feeling against those who would fritter away our interests on mere sentiment (a good thing in its place). I trust that every man who wants to advance the material interests of the people of the Eighth district in this important crisis in our public affairs will cast his vote and work for the nomination of Mr. Carlin. He will see to it that those of us who delve in the soil and want a "fair field and no favors" when we seek a market for our produce, shall have no unfair obstacles thrown in our way by the district authorities. Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight Friday partly cloudy; light north to northeast winds.

Charged With Miscegenation.

Officers Knight and Lyles, at the instance of Chief Goods yesterday evening arrested a white man named Levi Welch and a colored woman who gave her name as Lizzie Welch charged with violating section 3783 of the code. The man and woman were taken to the station house and locked up in separate cells. The woman said this morning that she was born in Alexandria and grew up under the name of Lizzie Richardson; that a little over two years ago she went to Bennington Vermont, where she was employed as a domestic in the home of a judge. Later she was married to Welch in Troy, N. Y The woman stated that she returned to this city for the purpose of visiting her mother, Lucy Richardson. When asked if she was not aware of the fact that it was against the law of Virginia for a white man to marry a negress, she replied that she was, but in Vermont in was nothing uncommon for white women to marry black men. Welch told substantially the same story. He has appeared in Alexandria, it is said, several times recently, and it is alleged that he has skipped board bills. He denies the latter charge. The following is section 3783, referred to above:

Sec. 3,783 "If any person marry in violation of section twenty-two hundred and twenty-four or twenty-two hundred and twenty-five, he shall be confined in jail not exceeding six months, or fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, in the discretion of the jury. And if any person, resident in this state, and within the degrees of relationship mentioned in those sections or any white person and colored person, shall go out of this state for the purpose of being married, and with the intention of returning, and be married out of it, and afterwards return to and reside in it, cohabiting as man and wife, they shall be as guilty, and be punished, as if the marriage had been in this state. The fact of their cohabitation here as man and wife shall be evidence of their marriage."

Decoration Day.

Services in observance of Decoration Day were held this afternoon at the National Cemetery, Rev. W. W. Van Arsdale, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, delivered the oration, and the invocation was offered by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Church. Lincoln's Gettysburg address was read by W. P. Graves, and appropriate hymns were sung by a choir. A feature of the exercises was the scattering of flowers over the graves, on each of which a small United States flag had been placed. The banks were closed today and the public schools had but one session. Later this evening the Light Infantry will march to the cemetery and fire a salute over the graves. There were public and private excursions, and the electric railway has been liberally patronized by visitors to Mount Vernon. The ideal weather has brought large numbers of people on the streets, while many persons from Washington and other cities visited Alexandria during the day.

Fell Asleep on the Way.

A mare belonging to a gentleman of this city became sick recently, and when it began to recuperate the owner concluded to place the animal in pasture in Fairfax county for a short time. He turned the mare over to a colored youth yesterday evening with orders to lead it to a farm adjoining this city. The darkey took hold of the halter and started for the farm via West End. When he reached a point near the reservoir it is said that he dropped the halter and, lying down, went to sleep. The mare upon being released strayed about, and finally concluded to lie down also. The animal selected a deep trench into which to recline, and from which it was unable to emerge. The owner, when ascertaining the facts in the case, started on a hunt for the mare last night, and after having discovered its whereabouts extricated it from the trench after considerable trouble.

Suit for Damages.

Alena Davis, by her father, John E. Davis, yesterday entered suit in Washington against the Western Union Telegraph Company and the Washington Southern Railway Company to recover $30,000 damages for alleged personal injuries which Davis says his daughter sustained by the explosion of a torpedo which the child picked up and endeavored to open with a stone. Davis, through his attorney, Crandal Mackey, alleges negligence on the part of the defendants for failing to provide sufficient protection against such an accident, which occurred June 1 last at Del Ray, Alexandria county.

Charters.

The State Corporation Commission has granted the following charters:

Cameron Steam Laundry, Inc., Alexandria. Incorporators—W. L. J. Rammel, president; J. M. Daniel, jr., E. O. Rammel, F. E. Carter, all of Alexandria. Capital stock—Maximum, $25,000; minimum, $10,000.

R. W. & J. B. Henderson, Inc., Alexandria. Incorporators—J. B. Henderson; R. W. Henderson, president; H. B. Henderson, Rosa Lee Henderson, all of Washington. Capital stock—Maximum, $100,000; minimum, $50,000.

Union Formed.

Employes of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Electric Railway Company have organized a union. The following are the officers: E. N. Davidson, president; S. P. Bell, vice president; Cecil Hufty, secretary; Charles Mowbray, recording secretary, and Peter Young, treasurer.

Reading Contest.

At the annual reading contest of the students of the Episcopal Theological Seminary held last night Mr. W. R. Mason won the prize. The judges were Dr. L. M. Blackford, Mr. Arthur Grey, Mr. H. B. Burke Mr. E. S. Leadbeater and Mr. McQuary.

Personal.

Miss Sallie G. Patterson has successfully passed the examinations in the several grade course of examinations at St. Mary's Academy, this city.

Mrs. J. T. Johnson, who has been quite ill at her home on north Washington street, is recovering.

Mrs. M. W. O'Brien is recovering from her recent illness of pneumonia.

Among the strangers in this city today and who visited Alexandria-Washington Lodge rooms was Mr. Daniel Nash Morgan, of Bridgeport, Conn., formerly treasurer of the United States.

Capt. A. J. Fair continues ill at his home on Wolfe street.

Mr. Charles Chauncey, with his sons of Ada, It., has returned home after a visit to his father Mr. John Chauncey on south Henry street.

The condition of James Pulman, the twelve-year-old son of the late Sidney Pulman, who has been seriously ill at the Alexandria Hospital, is thought to be better this evening.

Kindergarten.

The annual meeting of the Alexandria Free Kindergarten board will be held at Lee Camp Hall tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. Miss Jessie Holman, kindergartner from the neighborhood settlement, in Washington, and Mr. Neighl, the resident superintendent of the settlement, will speak; also Mrs. May Minnigerode Andrews, of Seminary Hill. Mrs. Woolls and Mrs. Thomas Hulfish will sing. The entertainment will be free and the public is most cordially invited. It is earnestly hoped that Alexandria will be well represented in the audience.

Property Sales.

Houses Nos. 1116 and 1121 Duke street, belonging to Mr. John Marshall, to Mr. J. Matthews.

Two lots at Del Ray to Mr. W. L. Bradbury, of Washington.

A farm near the Episcopal Theological Seminary to Mr. J. Matthews.

A farm in Fairfax county to Mr. Charles McGwin.

Mr. Carter expected to sell three houses on Prince street this afternoon.

The Tramp Nuisance.

An item in this column yesterday called attention to the chronic annoyance occasioned residents of the western section of the city by tramps, some of whom are one-legged. The police have arrested several of the genus lately, and they have been released upon promising to leave the city. Some, it is said, have failed to fulfill their promises, and are still loitering about the city. It is suggested by some that a white cap gang should be organized.

Changed Buggies.

A gentleman living near this city placed his horse and buggy in a yard in the western section of the city yesterday afternoon and when he was about to return to his home discovered that some one had traded vehicles with him. Another buggy had taken the one he had left in the yard. He discovered that a trade had been made in the harness, also.

Good Words for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Phillips, of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by W, F. Creighton and Gibson & Timberman.

WHO CAN VOTE?

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette.

In view of the fact that the district democratic committee has decided that none but known democrats can participate in the primary election for Congressman June 19. I would like to have your answer to the following questions:

First. Is a man who voted for the late John F. Rixey for Congess and Theodore Roosevelt for President on the same ticket at the last general election a "known" democrat or an "unknown" republican?

Second. Should such a man be allowed to vote in this primary, as you understood the ruling of the committee, when he voted for the republican candidate for President, notwithstanding the fact that there was no issue to divide the democratic party at the last election?

Third. What kind of a democrat is such a voter?

I await your answer.

GEO. H. HAYDEN.

[The district congressional committee, of which Mr. George S. Shackleford, of Orange, is chairman, will answer the above questions and in all probability will soon issue instructions as to who is entitled to vote in the coming primary.]

Mayor Receives Threatening Letter.

Following the arrest and detention of Carl H. Duncan in Boise, Idaho, on the charge of carrying concealed weapons, Mayor Haines yesterday morning got an anonymous letter. Each word was carefully printed out. It read: "The man you have arrested is an honest workingman. We ask that you release him at once. We also insist that you dismiss Chief of Police Francis. If not, we will find a way to get both you and the chief."

Duncan appears to be a socialistic lunatic. When arrested he had on the most wonderful set of false whiskers and eyebrows that the eye of man has ever gazed upon. They were excessively luxuriant. Moreover, they did not match his hair or his complexion. It was scarcely remarkable that such an outfit attracted the attention of the police.

The man had with him a bag containing a Colt automatic pistol, a knife with a blade six inches long, a pair of brass knuckles, and a dozen skeleton keys. He also had a card showing he was a member of Spokane Union, No. 222, of the Industrial Workers of the World, together with letters from Wade E. Parks. Parks is the correspondent in Chicago of the New York socialist paper called The People.

Sore Nipples.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with best results. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Gibson and Timberman.

Piles get quick and certain relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Please note it is made alone for Piles, and its action is positive and certain. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large nickel-capped glass jars 50 cents. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Nine-Day Old Prodigy.

The prodigious performance of the nine-day-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Leftwich Brewer, well known Grayson county people, living near Fox postoffice, has thrown that neighborhood into a state of intense excitement, and many people live in fear and trembling lest some great catastrophe is impending. The child was born two weeks ago, and when nine days old startled its aunt, Mrs. Thomas Brewer, who was carrying it, and other relatives, by suddenly beginning to talk, its articulation being perfect. The child called the names of its parents, grandparents, and others, repeating each name three times, following this with the word "heaven." Members of the family fled from the house in fright at the behavior of the infant. The child died Tuesday, but excitement has not yet subsided. The story is corrobrated by Dr. G. B. Halsey, a physician of that neighborhood, and W. J. Phipps, postmaster at Fox.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Guaranteed under the food and drugs act, June 30th, 1906. Serial number 1098.

CANDIDATES.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

Having determined to become a candidate for the democratic nomination for Congress from the Eighth Congressional District, I respectfully solicit the support of the democratic voters of the district at the primary election to be held June 19th, 1907. If the people of the district shall deem me worthy of the high honor of bearing the democratic flag in the contest for Congress it shall be the ambition of my life to prove worthy of their confidence and support. Respectfully,

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA:

I hereby announce my candidacy for the democratic nomination for Congress from the Eighth congressional district, and in so doing desire to say that if chosen at the forthcoming primary it shall be my constant aim and endeavor to represent faithfully the interests of the entire district.

In the course of the campaign I shall endeavor to address and meet as many of the voters as possible in order that we may get better acquainted with each other. I earnestly solicit the support of my fellow democrats. Respectfully, ma21 tf C. C. CARLIN.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA:

In a card addressed "To the People of the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia," and published in the press of the district and otherwise, I have heretofore announced my views on the questions of moment which now concern the public.

Adopting that card as a part of this announcement, I now formally announce myself a candidate for Congress from the Eighth congressional district of Virginia, subject to the action of the congressional primary to be held Wednesday, June 19th, 1907.

In the event that I shall be nominated and elected, it will be my earnest desire and ambition to be of service to my district, State and country, and to faithfully represent every interest, and to justify, by every exertion in my power, the confidence reposed in me and honor conferred on me by my fellow democrats. Respectfully,
